

The Richardson County Arts & Humanities Council is a volunteer organization whose mission is to provide cultural programs, activities and art exhibits that inspire, entertain, and educate. We are beginning our 11th season of promoting the cultural arts within our community and surrounding area to both adults and children. Your continued financial support contributes to the achievement and success of the organization's mission.